Class Poem

by Jane Tower

Four years we have spent with you, Oh Hingham High;
Four hard, yet happy years gone swiftly by.
You have seen our cares and joys and sorrows through;
With you we've shared our gains and failures too.
The good times we have had, the friends we've made:
The memory of all these will never fade.
You have taught us well to reach our cherished aim
With high ideals, the stony road to fame.
And now we stand at world's wide-open door,
Bearing the flaming torch that once you bore:
The torch of honor, beauty, faith and love
Lighted by some divine beam from above.
We put our childish thoughts and cares apart,
And face the future with a fearless heart.

Class Will by Marjorie Cohen

On this last day of our supremacy, we, the mighty class of 1939 of Hingham High School, being of more or less sound mind and body [mostly less], and fully aware of our sacrifices, do bequeath this our last will and testament to the faculty and undergraduates of said institution, hereby revoking any and all wills made by us.

To the Juniors: Our beloved books of knowledge; the honor of being next year's cap and gown-ers.

To the Sophomores: Our ability to stay out of mischief; our best wishes that their next two years will be as happy as the first two.

- 1st. Mary King and Courty Bourne leave their title of "Class Sweethearts" to Margaret Harkness and Buddy Henry.
- 2nd. Mary Ahern leaves to Margaret Quinn some of her slimness and height.
- 3rd. Herbie Cole leaves his soft voice to Barbara McKee.
- 4th. Dot Rix leaves her magnetic personality to Shirley Fisher.
- 5th. To any commuter, Mary Bernan leaves her remarkable ability to sleep late and still arrive on time. She certainly knows how to make the bus drivers — wait!
- 6th. To Henry Miller, Rip Downing leaves his attachment to one girl. Hang on Henry!
- 7th. Bobby Mitchell leaves his ability as first baseman to any one worthy of it.
- 8th. John McPherson leaves the girls to Dud Ward.
- 9th. Rhoda Sherwood leaves her Umph to Harriet Valine.
- 10th. Ginny Curley and Tillie Lorman leave their giggles to Betsy Balch and Betty Bernstein.
- 11th. To Isabelle Campbell we bequeath a book telling how, when and what to tell one man when you have a date with another. This book has been published from actual experience by Priscilla Lalonde.
- 12th. To all Freshmen interested Charlie Sherman leaves his approval of Weymouth girls. He ought to know.
- 13th. To Kay Bacon and her followers, Carmella Franco bequeaths her meek attitude.
- 14th. Jimmy Meehan leaves his ability to charm the girls to anyone worthy of it.
- 15th. Carol Whiting leaves her size 3½ shoe to Lee Hatch.
- 16th. 4 C leave their position as the outstanding class of the year to the 4C of 1940 and hope that this class will have just as high ideals.
- 17th. Peggy White and Helen Cantwell leave their jitterbuggin' to Ruth Rhodes and Audrey Miller.
- 18th. Hazel Sherman bequeaths the corner seat in the library, which is not visible from the desk, to Barbara Jaeger.
- 19th. Paul Campbell leaves his physique to Henry Miller.
- 20th. Joe Carew leaves his school-girl [or should I say school-boy] complexion to Paul Ross.
- 21st. Mary Lortie leaves the boys to Dot Richman.
- 22nd. Mary Disnard leaves her recording of "Study in Green" to the incoming Freshmen.
- 23rd. To Charles Driscoll, Mary Catrambone leaves some of her artistic ability, hoping that he will use it advantageously.

In witness whereof we have hereto subscribed our names and affixed our seals this twenty-first day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine.

Witnessed by The Honorable Members of 4C.
